RULE 26.1

INTERROGATORY QUESTIONS

NOW COMES, Mr. William Anthony Fagnes, Pro Se, herein referred to as the Plaintiff. The Plaintiff provides this Honorable Court with a list of names that are Defendants in the aforementioned case which will receive Interrogatory Questions that will allow the Plaintiff to receive relevant information as evidence to be used in discovery. The Rules of Criminal Procedure do not permit the Defendants to plead the (Fifth Amendment), as only (11) of the (23) twenty three Defendants are presented with Interrogatory Questions, as they are central players in the Murder and cover up of Ms. Ada Mays Jones, and recipients of the estate in which the Plaintiff is the true heir. Some of the Defendants have aid and abett to create a fraudulent indictment.

Pursuant to Rule 26.1, this rule allows the Defendants the opportunity to tell the truth before this Honorable Court under the penalty of perjury, as evidence and witnesses have already verified and documented events and other pertinent information that qualifies the Defendants are participant's in the Continuing Criminal Enterprise operating "Under the Color of Law".

The Questions that are directed to each individual Defendant is structured and asked to give their account of the situation that they have participated in individually as it relates to the Murder, Cover up, Aid and abetting, suppression and concealment of evidence, or the set up of the Plaintiff through forgery scheme of the Grand Jury Foreman's signature, and the signature of the Plaintiff himself.

The Petitioner contends, evidence and witnesses support the foundation of the questions asked each Defendant, and if the Defendants do not respond to the questions, it will be deemed that they admit to the actions accused. The Plaintiff respectfully asks this Court for (30) thirty days to allow the Defendants to respond with their answers from the questions presented. The Defendant respectfully requires that the answers be submitted directly to the Honorable United States Court of Appeals, as well as the Plaintiff, as the information will be forwarded to the Honorable Office of the United States Attorney General just as this entire case has been presented thus far.

The Plaintiff declares, the questions are directed to each individual that has participated in the conspiracy to embezzle the estate of Ms. ADA MAYS JONES, and the Plaintiff's truly is the truthful heir of that estate. Evidence provides, from the coroner to the Probate Court that foul play is evident. Each Defendant plays a role that is covered in their legal capacity as Lawyers, F.B.I. agents, U.S. Attorney's, Coroner's and judicial capacities. Each role that is identified is linked to another player in this scheme, which qualifies this Continuing Criminal Enterprise as a Racketeering Criminal Organization as identified under Title 18 U.S.C. §1961 (1 through 5).
